The Glades' contribution to Florida's National Guard last Saturday morning for two weeks encampment at Fort Lee, Va., as the 14th QM Company 50th QM Group, Fla. National Guard.

Our boys job is to get fuel to the tanks, planes and other equipment used by the soldiers at the front, when they need it — they're part of the logistics, as necessary as bullets.

Communism — It's Propaganda Foisted On The Unsuspecting

Dr. Geo. Hopkins of Jupiter, a Methodist minister held his audience's attention Friday night as guest speaker at the annual Rotary-Ann dinner in a thought-provoking recital of facts about "The Influence of Communism in Our Churches."

The speaker quoted published figures on the number of preachers, and leading laymen on the several denominations who are acknowledged communists, and of those who are "fronting for communists."

Dr. Hopkins demonstrated just how the Godless Communistic world-domination plan takes advantage of "do-gooders" in high places to spread its propaganda in the pulp and to the unsuspecting audiences and groups of readers.

In answer to a question as to "What can we do to lessen this?"

New Hours And Classes Announced For Pools

Belle Glade's Municipal and Lake Shore swimming pools will be open Mondays thru Saturdays from nine until five, Sunday afternoons from one o'clock 'til five, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7:00 until 9:30.

Superintendent Casey Gregorich announced beginners swimming classes will not begin until June 20, due to the heavy enrollment at Bible schools, but asked all mothers to sign their children soon as possible.

A special class is being arranged at Lake Shore pool for the physically handicapped, according to pool manager Johnny Rutledge.

All persons interested are asked to contact him for information.

541 Cars Of Corn Leave By Rail

The season comes to its end, with some corn and cotton yet to be moved in a volume depending on the market.

Ninety percent of this week's movement was a corn of 541 of the total of 604 by rail; 33 celery, 27 mixed and 3 peppers were accounted for the balance.

Building Permits $269,855 For May

Building permits for the City of Belle Glade for the month of May are 35% of the total for the eight months of this fiscal year, with 17 new homes in the list.

Four of the homes are for $10,000 each, two for $12,000 and one for $13,000. Seven are for $4,500 and three in the $5,000 class.

The City Building Inspector took in $1,106 in fees for the 82 permits issued. Forty-two of the permits were for electrical work and signs for a total of $19,465, while repairs and additions accounted for 14 permits and $16,200.

The county schools received a $15,000 permit and Al Muthach renewed a permit for a building at 118 S. W. 5th St. for $27,000.

Cigarette Pay Off In Taxes To City

Belle Glade is receiving $7,634.20 in the cigarette tax money for the month of April. Pakokee gets $2,172.00 as its share, while South Bay takes in $1,596.00.

It's not uncommon, in these days of jet progress, to welcome the new, the different, the modern.

It has been as natural to have a Valdeictorian and a Salutatorian in a graduating class, as it has been customary to fry the biggest chicken in the yard for the preacher—it's just the thing to do, and everybody, including the preacher agrees.

These two graduates are those having received the highest scholastic honors respectively, in high school.

Pollon Morris, and his Staff at Belle Glade High do not believe that proper recognition of many students whose four-year scholastic records are outstanding, was given under this old system.

Belle Glade Hospital Visiting Hours Changed

Belle Glade Memorial Hospital visiting hours have been extended to cover a longer period of time. Friends and relatives of the hospitalized person may visit at the bedside from 10:30 a. m. to 8 p. m.

The hospital reserves the right to limit and restrict the amount of visiting per patient and requests that children under 12 years of age, not be taken into the corridors, for visiting purposes.

The Hospital hopes that this new policy will raise the patient's morale and help to decrease anxiety of family and friends.

Twenty-six Hereford steers averaging 882 pounds net were from the Hechler Ranch, the first large group sold by this Virginian since he became a Glades cattleman.

Next week's Board offerings will total more than 150 good steers.

Baccalaureate Services Appreciated By A Host Of Parents And Friends

Belle Glade's High School Glee Club, with Annie Powell as soloist, most appropriately and effectively prepared the audience to receive an impressive and pointed message by Presbyterian Minister W. W. Preston, at Baccalaureate services Sunday night.

Pointing his message of "Looking To The Future" impressively to four "P's": Purpose, Preparation, Practice and Perseverance, the speaker let the Apostle Paul speak out for his emphasis, from Philippians 3:13-14.

In looking to the future the Apostle Paul spoke out for success. He knew the power of:

1. Whole hearted concentration. "This one thing I do."

He had in mind not a dozen, not two, but one thing. "He knew it was necessary to have a purpose."

2. Wise forgetfulness of the past. "Forgetting those things which are behind."

Our teachers tell us to remember. The Bible says over again for us to "Remember."

But there are some things which we are to forget — our blunders, losses, life's injuries, successes and especially our sins of the past which will keep us from the goal of God's promise that He has forgiven."

Stress was placed on the fact that we must have a purpose, a goal, a vision, a dream, a vision of the future, a vision of the life to come, a vision of the life to come, a vision of the life to come.

Due to the fact that Commencement at the High School conflicted with the schedule Commission meeting on Wednesday night, the Commission will meet to-night, Thursday at 8

Belle Glade's '50 census figures of 11,219 places this community in fifth place in the county, behind Delray Beach by 720 persons.

Riviera Beach comes in with 12,832 for third place, and Lake Worth counted 20,326, with West Palm Beach, of course, high at 55,539.

When Chosen's 1856 are added to the Okeechobee Camp figures of 1,648, we must add 3,504 to the figures of Belle Glade.

In addition, residents just east of Belle Glade, including the Experiment Station, and those to the North of the City limits, we must add another 250.

When we take this 3,754, added to those in the incorporated limits, we find that Belle Glade's population comes to 14,973 folks counted. We could more than scare up the additional 27 necessary to make the round 15,000, at the Glades State Prison Farm.

Remembering that our city limits have not been increased since its original incorporation, except for a couple of bulges to the south and east, we're justified in claiming 15,000.

These figures would place us third, in the county; anyhow, it's easy to count more than Riviera and Delray, with Chosen alone - 13,075.

The county comes up with 224,537 for an increase in the ten year period since '50 of 95.8%. The previous ten-year period (40-50) saw Palm Beach County gain from 79,989 to 114,688 for a 43.2% increase.

The sixth congressional district comprising eleven counties (five the east coast, three on the west coast and three mid-state) has grown from 784,441 in '40 to 733,545 at present; the last ten-year decade found the increase from 248,362 for a 156%.

The greatest growth in the district was in Broward County for a percentage of 292%; Charleston, S. C. was next with 191%.

Collier, Lee, Martin, and Indian River had better than a 100% growth.

The City Commission at its meeting on May 25th voted unanimously to have the City contract with the Florida Development Commission for a planning program for the City of Belle Glade, at a cost of $10,000. The Federal Government will pay $5,000.

The contract calls for a two year study of 600 calendar days from the effective date of the contract, which is dependent on the okay by the Federal government on the participation.

Among the studies to be made are: population, economic, present and future land use, street planning, community facilities, neighborhood planning, capital improvements, area uses, subdivision regulations, special area (business district), annexation plans, and legal and administrative effectiveness of the plans used.

Florida's Retail Installment Sales Act was passed by the last Legislature, and became effective January 1. In addition to its licensing provision, it sets a limit of 10% per year on interest which may be charged on the principal balance, and requires contracts to contain certain features for the protection of the buyer. With violations of the law are punishable by fines of not exceeding $500.

During the month of April, South Bay collected from the cigarette tax $1,596.62, almost a dollar per head of population.

Survivors include a husband Walter Elick Shortney, son, Donald and a daughter Rhonda. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shortney, and three brothers, Pete and Coy of Lake Harbor and Herbert of South Bay.

Other local ministers participating in the service were: Robt. N. Huffman, Vice, St. John the Apostle, scripture; Edith Lovette, benediction. Due to a death in his family, Rev. D. L. Rustin of the Community Methodist church was unable to be present.

The Methodist church auditorium was seated to capacity with standing room occupied by a most attentive and appreciative audience.

City Manager Talmadge has been instructed by the Commission to contact all persons, including the railroad concerns, the opening of Avenue A through to sixteenth Street.

The Manager reports that contact is being made and some announcement will be available in the near future.

There is also the matter of insurance — life and hospitalization, —worth, it is estimated, $100 per year to the teacher.

If you were on the Board, what would you do?

What do you figure a fresh clean college graduate is worth the first year — the trial year? What is she or he worth the second and on thru the tenth year, if she lasts that long?

Remembering that we're talking about 1700 employees of the Palm Beach County system affected by any change in pay — and they get $300 increase each per year — and it takes more than half a million additional each year in salaries alone — where's the money coming from?

Are those who pay real estate taxes going to have to take the load, or are we going to get the help? You can't shrug it off; something must be done, and it's you and you, and me who will have to help do it.

Any suggestions are welcomed by the Board — Do you agree that the teachers pay must be adjusted, and if so from whom do you wish the Board to collect the money necessary? Do you want your taxes raised? Not Well then do you have a dollar Uncle who will kick in for you?

The teachers say "Palm Beach County will have the kind of schools they pay for."

Wage scales for teachers are like all others they're going up, whether you like it or not. The teachers have asked for $300 across the board, or $300 across the board with the increments raised to $150 per year instead of the present scale of $100

It is known that in figuring these averages the final correct determination has necessitated the carrying of division to the fourth decimal point.

Then, there are those who don't quite make the "highest" grade, but were in there picking, and have grades far above the average; they haven't previously been recognized for four years of earnest work.

What hope have those who know that they are defeated early by some student particularly able scholastically to lead in receiving four-year awards?

The results pictured on last week front page of THE HERALD show from a system of recognition on the part of High School Staff that recognizes the work of eleven of the 55 graduates — 20%.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Shortnacy

The funeral of Mrs. Elsie Mae Shortnacy will be held Sunday at 3:00 p. m. at the Church of Christ in Belle Glade with Rev. Leslie Sloan conducting the service. Interment will be at Ridge-Lawn Cemetery at Clewiston.

Mrs. Shortnacy, age 34, died Friday night at a West Palm Beach Hospital following an extended illness.

A native of Arkansas, Mrs. Shortnacy had lived in Lake Harbor for the past eleven years.

Survivors include her husband Walter Elick Shortnacy, son, Donald and a daughter Rhonda. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shortnacy, and three brothers, Pete and Coy of Lake Harbor and Herbert of South Bay.

Other local ministers participating in the service were: Robt. N. Huffman, Vice, St. John the Apostle, scripture; Edith Lovette, benediction. Due to a death in his family, Rev. D. L. Rustin of the Community Methodist church was unable to be present.

There are four straight "A" students for the four-year stint; there are seven who are just below the "A" student, with A's and high "B's."

The four highest, selected among themselves the Valdeictorian and Salutatorian, as the ones best equipped to represent the Senior Class of Belle Glade High in presenting the welcoming and farewell addresses.

We applaud this system giving recognition of the eleven, rather than of only two; we applaud the spirit of the four in selecting from their group the two.

We applaud the seven for their records, and the school authorities for evolving the system!

Installment Retailers Must Register In Tally

Sales of the licenses required since the first of the year of all retailers who make installment sales have been far below expectations, and it is now apparent that many merchants are unwittingly guilty of violating the law. Out of some ten thousand estimated to be subject to this particular provision, less than twenty-five hundred have so far applied for licenses.

Florida's Retail Installment Sales Act was passed by the last Legislature, and became effective January 1. In addition to its licensing provision, it sets a limit of 10% per year on interest which may be charged on the principal balance, and requires contracts to contain certain features for the protection of the buyer. A CALENDAR OF FACT AND OPINION

From Human Events: "The phenomenal rise in the European standard of living produced by private enterprises is responsible for the decisive victories of conservative parties in Great Britain, Germany and France... and the demoralization of labor-socialist parties in these countries. Even socialist India is reconsidering its attitude toward nationalization. In Canada, the once-growing leftwing parties have collapsed. With trends elsewhere running strongly toward conservatism, will the U. S. A. prove the exception and turn leftward in 1960?"

Two Congressmen recently praised the dependability of the railroads in all kinds of weather. One of them, in calling attention to the carriers' performance during last winter's blizzards, said "the atrocious weather pointed up the vulnerability of air and highway travel." He added that we must see that the railroads are healthy and ready for emergencies—not only those caused by bad weather; but those related to national defense.

A spokesman for the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey states that "if the federal government does not start paying off the present debt, in the next 30 years we will pay interest charges equal to the $284 billion principal of the debt—and still owe all of it."

There has been a great deal of criticism of TV commercials. Recognizing this, Texaco, Inc., has inaugurated an unusual contest. Motorists and their families are invited to write their own commercials. The company's 43,000 dealers in this country and Canada will supply entry blanks. More than 1200 prizes will be awarded.

According to Washington Report, a publication of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, some 680,000 new school classrooms have been built since World War II. So, of the 1,330,000 classrooms that will be in use this fall, more than half will be of postwar construction. Communities have stayed ahead of enrollment requirements for classrooms, it adds—"WITHOUT federal intervention!"

The 1950's constituted the worst decade of disasters in the nation's recorded history. That statement comes from the American Red Cross, in a report on the havoc wrought by hurricanes, floods, tornadoes and other catastrophes. It says the toll included more than 29,000 homes destroyed, nearly 600,000 damaged, and more than 1,600,000 Americans made homeless.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"That wartime excise tax on all domestic passenger transportation, first imposed by Congress in 1941 to discourage travel by those who weren't obliged to go somewhere, is still effective..."

"Last year the Senate voted overwhelmingly for its full repeal, but niff-nawing in the House resulted in a compromise—reduction of the travel excise from ten to five percent on July 1st, this year. But this leaves the job only half done.

"It continues to depress the travel industry, the air bus and rail lines, in many cases cutting taxable earnings to the point where the Government loses more in income tax than it gains from the travel tax."

"The Internal Revenue Service recently ruled that certain advertisements by private companies could not be deducted as a business expense by the private power companies..."

"We... believe that the private power companies have a perfect right to... decide what is legitimate advertising expense and what is not—the Internal Revenue Service of the U. S. Government. If the Service can do this to the private power industry, it can intimidate many other major industries and curtail freedom of expression and opinion to an alarming degree."

Your Library

"What a bank is in the field of Finance, and what a super market is in the field of food, a public library is in the field of food for the mind."

This week Mrs. Betty Harris librarian and Mrs. Ruth Clemens member of library board, have agreed the following books are most interesting and suggest to the public to keep them in mind the next time you visit your library.

A Fictional History of the Automobile by Philip Van Doren Stern is much more than a history of the motor car. It is a history of an era, alas! gone now. It is a book recommended to the teenager, who's interested in old cars, the so called "hot rods" and to oldersters too. Perhaps the youngsters will consider it little but they will reminisce with a sigh. Those were the days! The cars we drove. The tools we carried. (An 18 car lot for motor-ists was offered for sale by Hammacher, Selmer & Co., in 1906). The book tells of the proper styles to wear while motoring in the early 1900's, to the late camping outings. One gadget which was especially liked was a contraption that fitted over and around the exhaust pipe and guaranteed to bake potatoes by the time you arrived at your destination.

What Next Dr. Peck? by Dr. Joseph H. Peck, M. D., gives you a true narrative that is hilarious and heart warming, amusing and touching. It is an amusing contribution to the literature of medical autobiography. It is about a young doctor fresh from internship, with no patients, no money, only debts and dwindling hopes takes over as medical supervisor of a railroad construction gang in a lonely desert region of Utah, where patients were derelicts from all the skid rows of the west.

USDA Club Views Flood Control Film

"Waters of Destiny," a recent film produced by the Central and South Florida Flood Control District in cooperation with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, was viewed by the Everglades USDA Club at its monthly meeting June 1, at the Community Building in Canal Point.

The film showed conditions before the existence of organized flood control and present day conditions. The flood control system makes water available during the dry season and removes surplus water during rainy season.

As an integral part of the flood control system, two conservation areas were established. These areas serve as reservoirs for domestic water use, for surplus storage, for recreation and for wildlife refuges.

Mr. Roberts, in a discussion period following the film, pointed out that the Flood Control District covers 18 counties in central and southern Florida. He also stated that construction of the planned projects is approximately 18% completed and that federal and state funds are both being used to finance this important project.

Members present were, B. A. Belcher and his guest, Rex and Le Grand, Sugar Cane Agronomist at the Everglades Experiment Station, Virgil Bracker, Mills Byrom, Weldon Cardin, Irene Douth, D. W. Fisher, Carl Grassl, V. E. Green, Jack Little, Donny O'Neal, E. R. Rice, E. H. Todd, Hiram Whittemore, Douglas Wilson, Bill W. W. Carolyn Glover, and W. T. Forsee, Jr.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

I can't figure out if we ought to call this international rodeo in Paris the Meeting of the Summit or the Sermon on the Mount. It looks like Khushchev aims to miss the subject and miss the subject more than they are launched more moon rockets.

Incidentally, it begins to look like the word "monkey" is playing a bigger part in our foreign policy every day. They say the shortage of food among the poor folks in India is an account of them worshipping the monkey and giving him what little food they got. Then the American taxpayers has got to send wheat and money over there. Between monkey wrenches in Russia and hungry monkeys in India somebody is trying to make a monkey out of us—if you'll forgive me for monkeying around, Mister Editor.

I was reading in the paper last week where a tramp came by the jail house in some town and told 'em he didn't have the price of a square meal and that he was mighty hungry. They sawed him and found a $5 bill hid in his shoe. After looking at the grocery slip my old lady brought home today I'd have to say the pore seller was telling the truth.

Speaking of tramps, you don't need 'em roaming the country liked you used to 30 year ago. You can recollect when a week never passed that some tramp didn't knock at the door and ask for a hand out. I brung up the subject at the country store Saturday night and Ed Doolittle allowed as how it was on account of them being afraid of getting more'n two blocks away from the welfare and relief office.

I see by the papers where some lady in Chicago has writ to the paper asking the editor to start a campaign against cutting off dogs tails. She says a dog needs has tail to express his self. She claims her dog wags his tail north and south when things is going smooth, east and west when things is bad, and in a circle when he's hungry.

I'm an cutting off dogs tails and this lady has my support 100 percent, but her piece give me another idea. It would be mighty nice for the taxpayer if some of them bureaucrats in Washington had tails so's we could tell which way the wind was blowing. We shore can't tell from reading their red tape.

Yours truly,

Uncle Dan

Twenty Nine Attend Jay Harville's Party

It was a happy occasion Thursday afternoon, when twenty-nine friends of Jay Harville helped him celebrate his fourth birthday at a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harville.

The young fry enjoyed playing outdoors and were given favors of balloons, whistles and candy canes. The traditional birthday cake featured a cow-

Moon And Matthews At Gainesville Meet

Jim Moon, Superintendent of Belle Glade's sewerage disposal plant and H. M. Matthews, Chief Operator of our waterworks, were in Gainesville last week attending a short course in their respective professions.

In addition to the short course a meeting of the Florida association of waterworks and sewerage disposal workers will be held, and outstanding authorities will discuss the problems of the groups.

Pretty Purple Blooms Menace Water Control

Between mid-May and mid-October, special crews of FCD will be daily busy spraying poison on the pretty but deadly water hyacinths in the big primary canals maintained and operated by the FCD.

This job will cost the FCD about $125,000 this year, as compared with more than $112,000 spent on the program last year, it is estimated. In all, the FCD has already spent some $800,000 in the more than 10 years it has been in operation, controlling these weeds which could quickly ruin central and south Florida's great flood control and water conservation program.

Hyacinths stay alive all the year round, but only grow and bloom during the hot months. It is during these months that the FCD swings into operation against them, spraying the beautiful but obnoxious weeds with 2-4-D which poisons them. However, the remnants left under canal banks, or non-sprayed hyacinths in adjacent non-FCD canals, drainage ditch canals, spring to life when the next warm weather season opens, and quickly spread, cancer-like, across the canals, if not controlled.

Dail said "The quantity of 2-4-D used by the FCD is not harmful to fish, and we spray it with great care to protect the property of adjacent land owners. We take great care to protect the farmers," he said.

Stetson Graduates Two B. G. Youths

Among the 183 young men and women to graduate from Stetson University this year, with exercises beginning Saturday night, will be Carol Lueschauer Mosley, Belle Glade, and Jim Bill Geer, Lake Worth, a former Belle Glade resident.

Mrs. Mosley (a bride of last December) plans to teach elementary classes in Belle Glade next year. Mr. Geer's plans were not yet disclosed.

Allan Burry Named To Wesleyan Post

The Wesleyan Foundation of the University of Miami has announced that Allan J. Burry of Belle Glade, Florida has been named as Associate Director, effective June 1st. Mr. Burry graduated May 24th from the Union Theological Seminary in New York City, and has worked part-time for several years with the Department of International Affairs of the National Council of Churches in New York.

While a student at Union Seminary, he has also, at various times, been president of the National Methodist Student Movement, the United Student Christian Council, and the National Student Christian Federation, the student work department of the National Council of Churches. He has served on the Executive Committee of the Council's Department of Campus Christian Life, the Administrative Committee of the Commission on Higher Education, the General Committee of the Division of Christian Education, and the General Board of the National Council of Churches. Last summer he attended the Executive Committee of the World Student Christian Federation in Berlin, and this summer will attend a Teaching Conference of the WSCF in Strasbourg, France, and the General Committee in Salonika, Greece.

In Miami, Mr. Burry will work with Methodist students in the areas of program development and activities, worship, and social action.

Pioneer Spirit Of Missionary Work Heard By W. M. U.

"The Pioneer Spirit of Missionary Work" was the theme of the program presented at the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Union at First Baptist Church. Participating were members of the Jane Evans Circle, Mrs. Vernon Jones, Mrs. Luther Jones and Mrs. Roy Litchfield. Following the program a dedication prayer was offered by Mrs. S. S. Hill.

Each member present was urged to act as pioneers for the W. M. U. and try to get more of the church members interested in missions and the missionary spirit, as a great need is felt for the women of the church to be more active in the missionary program.

Mrs. Edward Straner and Mrs. S. S. Hill gave very inspiring reports of the Southern Baptist Convention which they both attended. Mrs. Barney Collier, G. A. leader at the Northside Baptist Chapel, reported attendance has been good the past month and during G. A. Focus week the girls participated in the monthly W. M. U. Circle meeting. Their community mission project was to visit an elderly woman, taking fruit and praying and singing with her.

The community mission project for the month of June will be to help with the Bible School. Mrs. Lloyd Strayer, president, asked each circle chairman to appoint a member of their circle to serve on the nominating committee for the coming year.

$800,000 In Florida Without Salk Vaccine

Dr. James O. Bond, State Epidemiologist, said it is estimated there are still some 800,000 persons under forty in the state who have had no polio immunization. He noted that the number of recorded polio cases in Florida this year is still well below that reported at the same time last year. He said 25 cases are on record this year, 17 of them paralytic. This compares with 65 cases at the same time last year, with 48 paralytic. "It is too early to predict that this will be a light polio year," the doctor said, "however, if every person would take the vaccine, this could be assured."

"Five years of experience with polio immunization have shown that the disease can be conquered," said Dr. Bond. "But the tragic thing is that the person, child or adult, who has not been immunized, is still just as much in danger as he was before Salk vaccine was introduced. It is unfortunate that your neighbor's vaccination will not protect you. Polio immunization is available to every person in the state, through private doctors or public health agencies."

308,000 Catholics In Diocese Of Miami

The Catholic population of the Diocese of Miami, which includes the Glades area, has been placed at 308,000, the diocesan bureau of information reported. The figure compiled in the diocese was released in the 1960 Official Catholic Directory, which gives a statistical survey of the Catholic Church in the United States of January 1, 1960.

The diocese of Miami embraces 16 counties, an area of 16,457 square miles, with a total population of 1,589,400. In 1959 new parishes were built raising the total to 65. There are 75 diocesan priests assisted by 41 priests of religious orders and 50 other visiting priests working part time duty, because of ill health.

In the Miami Diocese there are 3,262 students in 11 high schools and 24,073 students in 51 elementary schools, presenting an overall increase of 2,932 pupils over last year. The total Catholic children in this diocese has a total of 785 students with 112 students studying for the priesthood. In the Miami Diocese the schools are staffed by 91 priests, 362 sisters, 14 brothers, and 345 lay teachers.

The number baptized in 1959 were 7,614, 6,756 of them infants and 859 adult converts. There were 1,557 Catholic marriages and 1,572 deaths in 1958. Most rapid growth is evident in Broward county, where seven new parishes have been established by Bishop Coleman E. Carroll in 1959.

1,093 Jehovah's Witnesses Convene

Delegates from 20 cities in Southern Florida, numbering 1,093 attended the weekend out- going president of Jehovah's Witnesses held at West Palm Beach. They listened with keen interest as J. W. Folsom, special representa- tive, spoke on the subject, "Finding Peace in This Troubled World."

Filson told the congregated throngs that peace from God cannot come to a world walk- ing in delinquency and ungodli- ness. Peace, tranquility, public order and security will come only under the rule of God's Kingdom. "What may persons do to assure survival and to find peace now in the climatic days of this troubled world?" was the question he put before his audience. "An accurate knowledge of the will of God for us, trusting Him, and keep- ing His commandments—these are required essentials for his favor and protection," he said. James Gwin Zea, presiding minister of the local congrega- tion, reported that on Saturday 44 new converts were totally immersed in the water at John Foster Park. Annabelle With- den of Belle Glade was among those baptized in symbol of their dedication to God's ser- vice.

Seniors Highlight Hi-School Memories At Class Program

Friday night, June 3rd marked the beginning of graduation activities for the sixty graduating seniors at Lake Shore High School. The class night program this year had for its theme SENIORAMA, 1960. By the medium of recordings old and new, the senior class told the story of their high school careers at Lake Shore High School and shared some of the more vividly remembered highlights of each year with the audience.

Leroy O'Neal, disc jockey for the senior class, did an excellent job of combining all elements of the history of the class and as the history was related, seniors entered into it through the big record, SENIORAMA. Other members of the cast included Jack Boatwright, the roving reporter; Walter Stephens, Statistician; Charles Wilson, Prophet; Walter Nelson, Testator; Senior Superlatives were given by Vida Ruth Parrish and Oscar Robinson.

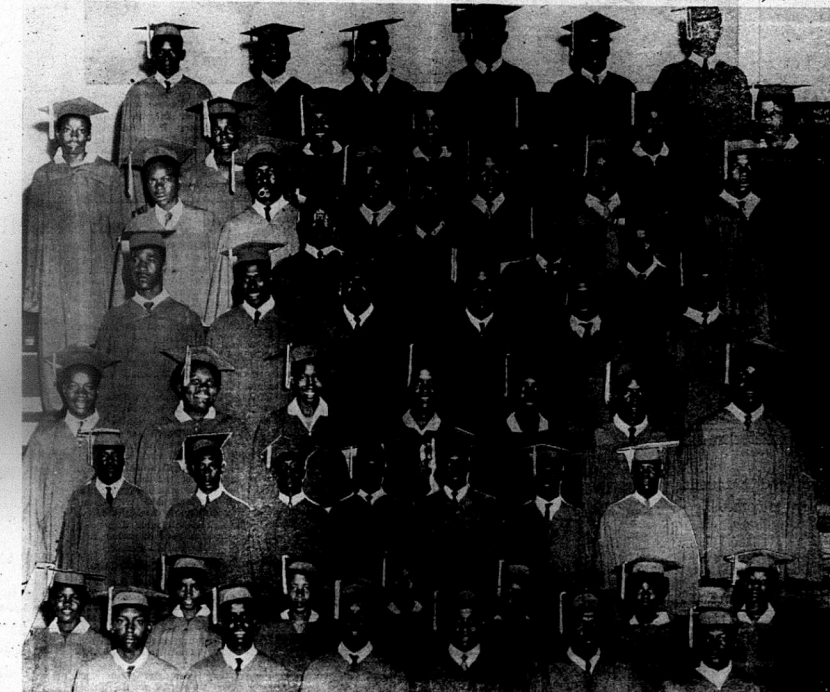

Another highlight of Class Night was the presentation of the senior class gift to the school. This year's class chose to present the school with a modern outdoor bulletin display board, which is located at the corner of 19th Street and Avenue E, facing Avenue E.

The presentation of awards or certificates of merit were made during the class night activities, also, Principal, Mr. Charles McCurdy, in charge of this phase of the program.

Baccalaureate Service.
Sunday afternoon, June 5, at 4 p. m. in the gymnasium, Reverend James B. Adams, pastor of First Baptist Church, Belle Glade, delivered the Baccalaureate Address. The invocation was given by The Reverend Milton Payson of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, Belle Glade.

The Lake Shore High School band and chorus rendered musical selections.

Wednesday night, June 8, at 8 p. m., concluded the graduation activities, as the sixty members of the senior class marched into the gymnasium for commencement.

"Seeds Have Been Planted" Is Theme At Commencement

The theme for this year's commencement program was THE SEEDS HAVE BEEN PLANTED, depicting the fact that during the twelve years each senior has been in school, various phases of the educational process have been instilled within each individual member of the class. The stage setting was that of a garden, the Garden of Education, with supports placed in various parts of the garden to denote the type of education planted in that particular area.

The welcome address was delivered by Evelyn Joyce Wright, (honors graduate), followed by the School Philosophy by Elijah Bolden. The senior dance group then presented a creative dance entitled "Planting the Seeds of Education" to the strains of Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor."

Following the dance, various members of the senior class delivered orations on the areas of education offered at Lake Shore High and reveal how each area has helped prepare them for high school graduation. Following the orations about the high school curriculum, the senior dance group sprang forth from the soil to interpret the fact that the plants, or members of the senior class, have had twelve years to receive educational nourishment and they are now ready to spring forth from the soil and grow into the future adult generation, full of hope for successful futures. Charles C. Wilson, Jr., (graduating with highest honors), delivered the class address, "WE'RE READY TO GROW."

Principal Charles McCurdy presented the class their diplomas and Mr. S. L. Teague, president of the P. T. A. presented each senior with "The American's Creed."

Students who graduated with honors were: Clinton Frazier Foster, Johnny Will Johnson, Hortense Hart, Johnnie Will Wimberly, and Evelyn Joyce Wright. Charles Clayton Wilson, Jr. graduated with highest honors. Sponsor of this year's senior class was Mrs. Effie C. Grear.

We're happy to see many young people building for their future by completing their education and looking forward to the future with hope. We salute their accomplishments and wish all of the graduating class of 1960 the best of luck in their lives. After graduation we'll be happy to help seniors to become useful citizens in our community.

The senior class play, a comedy in three acts, "Death Takes A Holiday" was presented on February 25, 1960 at 8:00 p. m. in the high school's gymnasium.

An audience of 300 viewed the play with eager anticipation of the next scene and awaited death's return to his proper role.
